

Terms and Conditions

TERMS OF SERVICE This website is operated by BusinessDesk, which is owned by NZME Publishing Limited (“NZME”). Throughout the site, the terms “we”, “us” and “our” refer to NZME and BusinessDesk. BusinessDesk offers this website, including all information, tools and services available from this site to you, the user, conditioned upon your acceptance of all terms, conditions, policies and notices stated here. By visiting our site and/or purchasing a subscription from us, you engage in our “Service” and agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions (together, “Terms of Service”, “Terms”), including those additional terms and conditions and policies referenced within and/or available by hyperlink. These Terms of Service apply to all users of the site, including (without limitation) users who are viewers, users, and/or contributors of content. If you do not agree to all the terms and conditions in these Terms of Service, then you may not access the website or use any Services. Additionally, your use of our website is subject to NZME’s Network Website Terms of Use, and NZME’s Privacy Policy. You can review the most current version of the Terms of Service at any time via <https://businessdesk.co.nz/terms-and-conditions>

We reserve the right to update, change or replace any part of these Terms of Service by posting updates and/or changes to our website. We will notify you of any changes that we believe may significantly affect your subscription or use of the website. It is your responsibility to check this page periodically for changes. Your continued use of or access to the website following the posting of any changes constitutes acceptance of those changes.

SECTION 1 - YOUR SUBSCRIPTION BusinessDesk provides a paid news service. All content is subject to copyright. Use: All subscriptions and content accessed are for personal use and cannot be used for commercial purposes. Group and corporate subscribers may access and read the content for business purposes in the course of their role with the organisation or group purchasing the subscription. This use does not extend to copying, publishing, transmitting or storing the content, or using for commercial purposes.

Accounts: An individual user account is for a single person. This means it cannot be set up for a generic email address (such as info@businessdesk.co.nz) viewable by multiple people unless you have a corporate account that allows all potential users to see the content. You may not on-sell a subscription. A group account is for a certain number of individual users. A corporate account covers all staff at the company or agency. Each user account is entitled to access the Service via two individual devices, such as a desktop computer, tablet device or smart phone. Users are not permitted to share their login details. You are responsible for all use of BusinessDesk by anyone using your account details and for preventing unauthorised use of your account details. Where users abuse their account rights, such as by sharing login details, we have the right to charge an amount equal to our standard published rate for the number of devices viewing the content. By using the Service, you agree to pay that amount.

Price and Payment: Personal subscriptions are pre-paid, and the price of the subscription will be deducted at the time you purchase the subscription. Group and corporate subscriptions will either be paid via credit card or will be invoiced in one invoice for your organisation issued either monthly, quarterly or annually in advance as confirmed with you. Invoices are due for payment by the 20th of the month following the month in which an invoice is issued. The price and any specific terms relating to your digital subscription will be confirmed to you when you subscribe. You can also find the specific details relating to your subscription, including the price and date of your next scheduled payment, by visiting your personal dashboard on www.businessdesk.co.nz. The price is in NZ dollars and includes GST. International subscriptions do not attract GST. If we are unable to deduct the price of your subscription upon renewal and are unable to contact you about this, we will retry for a minimum period of 14 days, after which time your subscription may be cancelled at our discretion. We reserve the right to change the timing of our billing, particularly if your method of payment fails at any time. We can change the price of any subscription and the amount that you pay (to be effective at the start of your next subscription period) at any time as long as we notify you. Once we notify you of a change in the price, you will have the opportunity to cancel your subscription (to be effective at the end of the then current subscription period). If you don't cancel, you will be charged the new price at the beginning of your next subscription period.

Renewals: Subscriptions renew automatically at the end of their term and will continue to renew at the end of each additional subscription period unless cancelled or terminated. Where you have paid for an annual subscription, we will alert you before it expires. You must cancel your subscription before it renews to avoid paying for future subscription periods. Digital subscriptions cannot be paused or suspended.

Cancellation: You can cancel your subscription using your personal dashboard once logged in at www.businessdesk.co.nz. Your access to the site will finish at the end of your current subscription period. You will not receive a refund for any unused part of your current subscription, unless otherwise specified in these Terms of Service. Notwithstanding the above, if you fail to cancel your annual subscription before its renewal date, but you call us on 0800 00 22 96 within 30 days of renewal to cancel your subscription, your subscription will be cancelled and you will receive a full refund for the renewal term. Trial subscriptions and special offers: No more than one trial subscription is permitted per user in any 12-month period. If we become aware that a user has had more than one trial subscription within a 12-month period we reserve the right to charge the full subscription rate for each trial period. Special offers or promotions may be offered from time to time. We reserve the right to change and/or withdraw these at any time prior to acceptance by you. We will provide special terms relating to such offers at the time of sign up.

Communicating with us: You can manage communications from us at any time by visiting your dashboard on www.businessdesk.co.nz. We can communicate with you, and give you notice in writing to the most recent email on your account. You can communicate with us, and give us notice, by calling 0800 00 22 96 or emailing us or by writing to us at NZME, 2 Graham Street, Private Bag 92198, Victoria St West, Auckland 1142, New Zealand.
