

Corporate Subscriptions Terms & Conditions

If you have purchased a Corporate Subscription (being a subscription for your entire organisation accessible through a nominated IP address or a domain email based solution) then the following terms and conditions apply in addition to the Terms & Conditions for Digital Subscriptions, NZME Network Website Terms of Use and Privacy Policy (together, the Corporate Terms of Use – all available here). Users who are granted access to the content under your Corporate Subscription (Users) are required to comply with the Corporate Terms of Use, and you are liable for any breach of the Corporate Terms of Use by your Users.

Corporate Users: Access will only be possible by signing in using your corporate email address. Users must register on the Herald website and sign in using that registration to gain access.

Corporate Use: Further to the 'Use' clause of the Terms & Conditions for Digital Subscriptions: Users may access and read the content for business purposes in the course of their role with the organisation purchasing the Corporate Subscription. Such use does not extend to copying, publishing, transmitting or storing the content, or in any circumstances using the content for commercial purposes. If you wish to use the Content beyond your Users accessing and reading the content (for example, copying and distributing clips of the content within or outside your organisation) then you will need to seek an appropriate licence through the PMCA (Print Media Copyright Agency – www.pmca.co.nz) in order to do so.

Payment for Corporate Subscriptions: You will be billed based on the number of users you specify for access. If you need to increase the number of users NZME will confirm pricing for the additional Users at the time of request. Corporate Subscriptions will be invoiced in one invoice for your organisation issued either monthly or annually in advance as confirmed with you. Invoices are due for payment by the 20th of the month following the month in which an invoice is issued by NZME.