

Group Subscriptions Terms & Conditions

If you have purchased a Group Subscription (being a subscription for a selected group of users within your organisation) then the following terms and conditions apply in addition to the Terms & Conditions for Digital Subscriptions, NZME Network Website Terms of Use and Privacy Policy (together, the Group Terms of Use – all available here). Users who are granted access to the content under your Group Subscription (Users) are required to comply with the Group Terms of Use, and you are liable for any breach of the Group Terms of Use by your Users.

Group Users: Each User nominated by you to access the content under a Group Subscription must have an email address incorporating your organisation's email domain and is entitled to access for that User only. Access is granted to the named User only. You can ask NZME to remove and replace Users during the term of your subscription, but you cannot reduce the number of Users during the term of your Group Subscription. You can increase the number of Users by putting in a request to NZME. NZME will confirm pricing for the additional Users at the time.

Group Use: Further to the 'Use' clause of the Terms & Conditions for Digital Subscriptions: Users may access and read the content for business purposes in the course of their role with the organisation purchasing the Group Subscription. Such use does not extend to copying, publishing, transmitting or storing the content, or in any circumstances using the content for commercial purposes. If you wish to use the Content beyond your Users accessing and reading the content (for example, copying and distributing clips of the content within or outside your organisation) then you will need to seek an appropriate licence through the PMCA (Print Media Copyright Agency – www.pmca.co.nz) and to hold either a NZME Full Corporate Subscription (when available) or a Group Subscription granting access to all of those with whom you wish to share in your organisation.

Payment for Group Subscriptions: Group Subscriptions will be invoiced in one invoice for your organisation issued either monthly or annually in advance as confirmed with you. Invoices are due for payment by the 20th of the month following the month in which an invoice is issued by NZME.
